Mitali Malik

Winner Mrs. Capital of India Season 3
(Divalicious Category) 2021

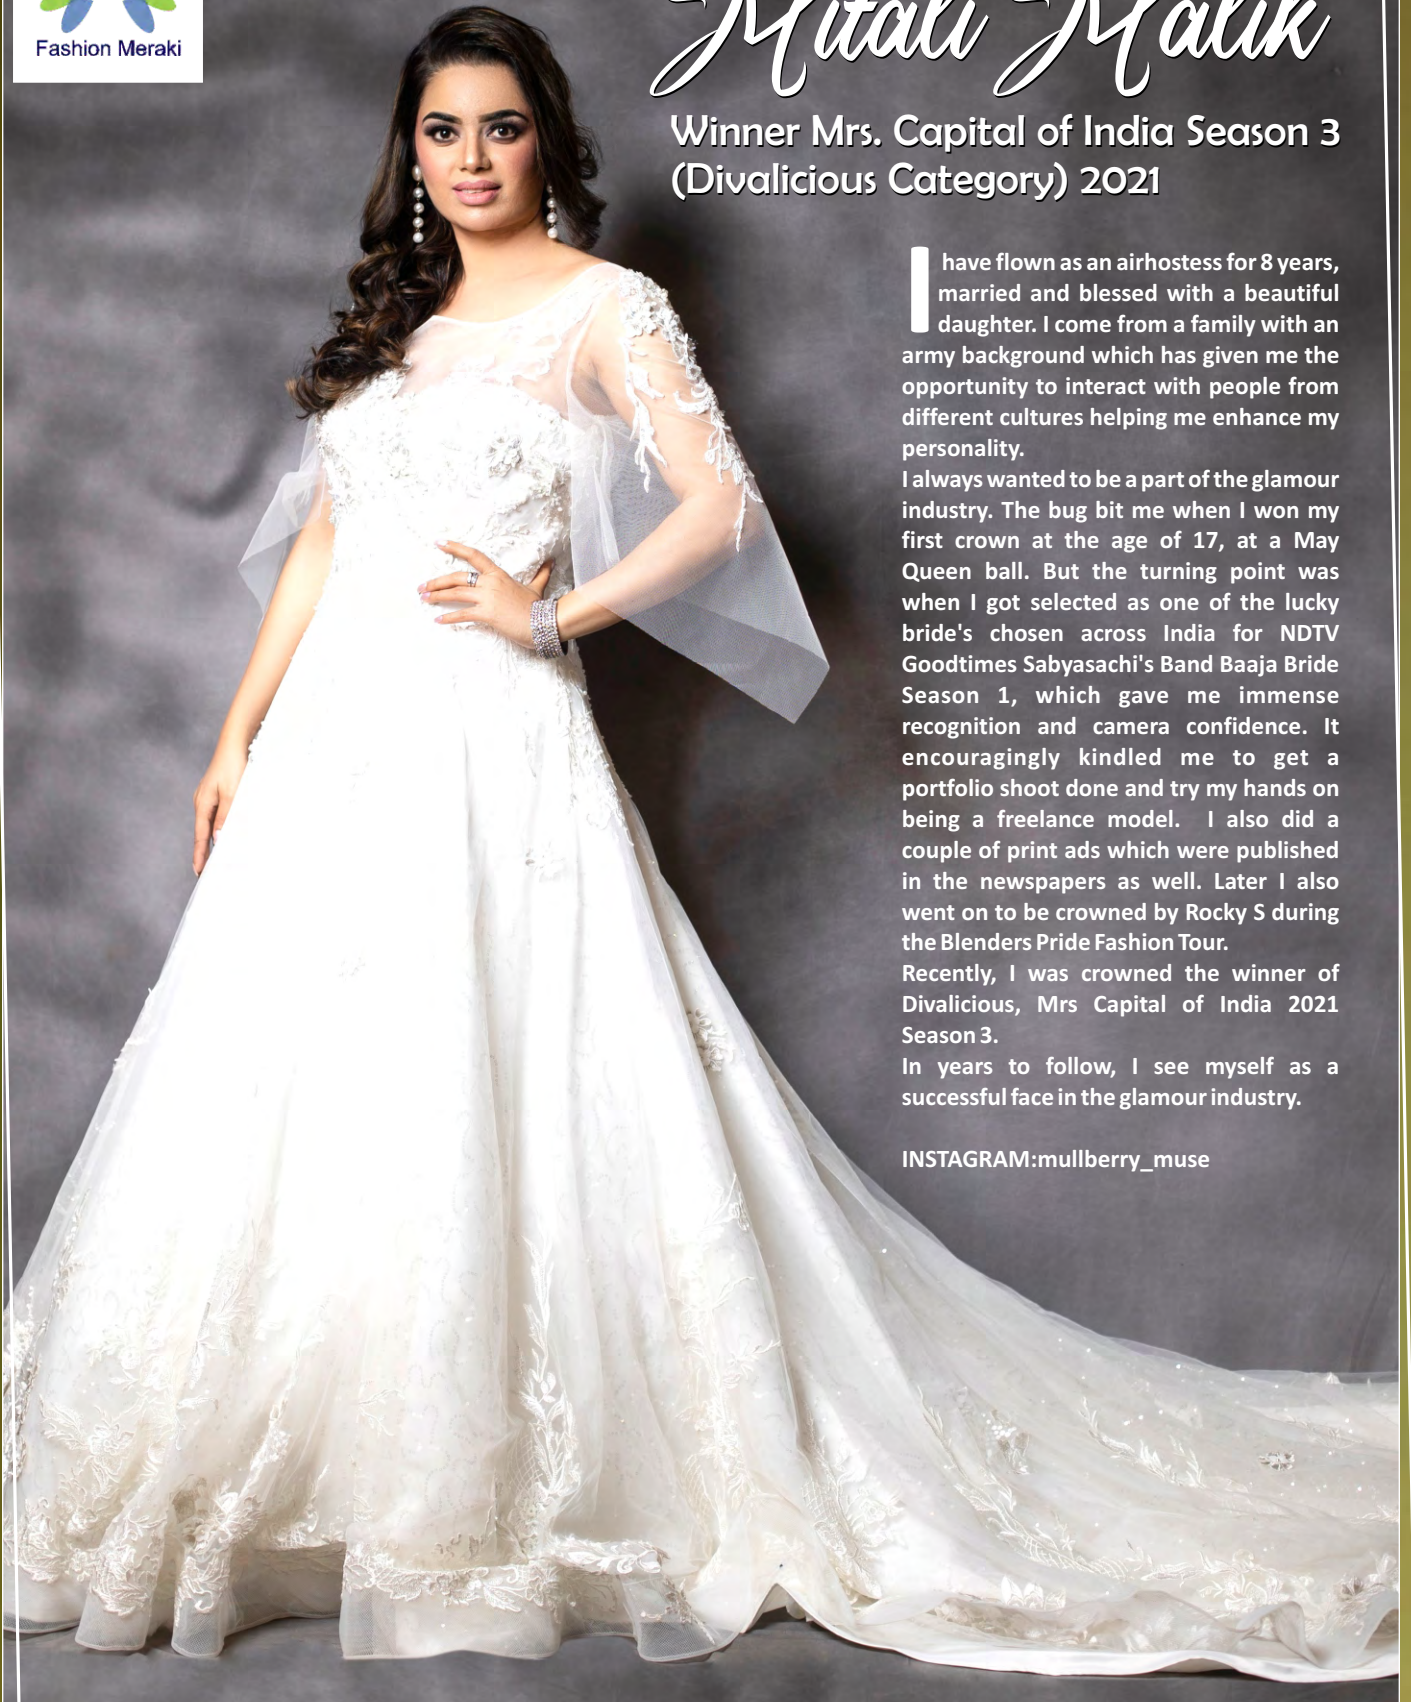

I have flown as an airhostess for 8 years, married and blessed with a beautiful daughter. I come from a family with an army background which has given me the opportunity to interact with people from different cultures helping me enhance my personality.

I always wanted to be a part of the glamour industry. The bug bit me when I won my first crown at the age of 17, at a May Queen ball. But the turning point was when I got selected as one of the lucky bride's chosen across India for NDTV Goodtimes Sabyasachi's Band Baaja Bride Season 1, which gave me immense recognition and camera confidence. It encouragingly kindled me to get a portfolio shoot done and try my hands on being a freelance model. I also did a couple of print ads which were published in the newspapers as well. Later I also went on to be crowned by Rocky S during the Blenders Pride Fashion Tour.

Recently, I was crowned the winner of Divalicious, Mrs Capital of India 2021 Season 3.

In years to follow, I see myself as a successful face in the glamour industry.

Vandana Gangwani

Winner Mrs. Capital of India Season 3
(Curvalicious Category) 2021

I am 29 years old chartered accountant working for a multinational conglomerate in Noida and have been on this rewarding journey for the past 5 years.

I have been very independent since the beginning of my career. My parents have been a major support and has always encouraged me to choose my own path.

I got married to the man I love and we share a great understanding. He has been my best friend, my confident, my biggest cheerleader and my guiding light ever since we got together.

While my professional career has been progressing steadily with several accolades to my name, I always felt a strong inclination to take on a parallel journey towards breaking stereotypes of a conventional society. Also, the liberty of creating your art around fashion and beauty can be so liberating that somewhere I knew in my heart that following this path could help me discover what truly makes me happy. So, one day when I was browsing a social media platform, I stumbled upon Fashion Meraki and knew from that very instant what I had to do this and rest is history.

To be a part of something of this grandeur is like a dream come true. This journey has brought me closer to myself as a person and boosted my confidence and outlook towards life.

It is unbelievable how life hides little surprises for us, can't wait to get some more.

Sarabpreet Kaur

1st RunnerUp Mrs. Capital of India Season 3
(Curvalicious Category) 2021

Confidence isn't walking into a room thinking you are better than everyone, its walking in not having to compare yourself to anyone at all. To me, beauty is about being comfortable in your own skin. Its about knowing & accepting who you are.

I am Sarabpreet Kaur, age 27 years. My strength is that I am confident, able to bring smile on everyone's face, create positivity, good in making people laugh & able to mould things in my favour. I hate lier & egoistic people.

I am from Punjabi conservative family. So, coming out of such background & comfort zone it was really difficult to step out & take part in pageant. But, after winning the crown my parents happiness knew no bounds. I always wanted to do something in glamour, acting & comedy. I have funny punjabi accent. I am super excited nd looking forward to achieve my dreams.

This all would never be possible without Fashion Meraki. Fashion Meraki has given us the voice & provided us the platform where all women can come and showcase their best. This all is because of strong pillars of Fashion Meraki that is Divya Jain Ma'am and Karan Singh Sir.

In last I want to add, Life holds a special magic to those who dare to dream. Girls it's never easy, to think about yourself and step ahead & spread wings out of your comfort zone & explore yourself. And make yourself a priority. At the end of the day, you are your longest commitment.
